Mch I think she's going to go fishing.

PAUSE 00'05"

And what's that boy's name?

This kind of animal has interesting name. We call it a hippo, but its long name is 'hippopotamus'. Hippopotamus 'river horse'. It has that name because hippos spend lots time in the water and their ears look like horses' ears. They like grass too. But hippos are much bigger horses. The only animal in the world that a bigger mouth is a whale! A hippo is sometimes a dangerous animal but it is not always brave. It will often run to the water hide. When it's swimming, its nose, eyes and ears are above the water it can still smell, see and hear. When a hippo decides to go under the water, it closes its nose and walks on the bottom of the river it can find plants to eat. It's easy for a hippo to stay under the water eight minutes! Hippos not eat meat. Their favourite food is river plants and different kinds of grass, and they usually only eat at night.

Sarah's new friend!

Sarah and her parents and two younger brothers live in the jungle. Early every morning, she runs to her favourite mango tree and climbs it, so she can bring five mangoes from the top of the tree for her family to eat for breakfast.

One morning, she was sitting in the tree when she saw an enormous tiger below her.

'Go away!' she called. 'I can't come down until you go!' But the tiger didn't go away. It looked up at her and said, 'Why?'

Sarah was very surprised! 'Tigers don't speak!' she said. 'Well, I do,' the tiger answered. 'I'm not dangerous. Climb down. Those mangoes look heavy. I'll help you get home. You can ride on my back.'

Very slowly and very carefully, Sarah climbed down the tree. When she was on the ground again and looked into the tiger's kind eyes, Sarah didn't feel frightened.

It was fun to ride on the tiger's back. It stopped just outside the village. 'I shouldn't come near the houses,' it said. 'People are afraid of me!'

Sarah understood. She thanked the tiger and said goodbye.

'You're back quickly!' her father said.

'Yes!' Sarah smiled. 'I rode a tiger home!'

No-one believed Sarah but she didn't mind! She knew she had an exciting and really kind new friend, the tiger, and that made her very happy.

A2 Flyers Speaking

Summary of procedures

The usher introduces the child to the examiner.

- 1. The examiner greets the candidate and asks for name, surname and age.
- 2. The examiner demonstrates what is required and shows the candidate two pictures which are similar but have some differences. The examiner reads statements about the examiner's picture. The candidate must look at the candidate's picture, identify six differences and say how the picture is different, e.g. (examiner) 'In my picture, the helicopter's on the left.' (candidate) 'In my picture, it's on the right.'
- 3. The examiner shows the child the candidate's copy of the Information Exchange. The examiner first asks the child questions about a person, place or object, related to the information the child has, e.g. 'What's the name of George's castle?' and the child answers. The child then asks the examiner questions, e.g. 'What's the name of Grace's castle?' and the examiner answers.
- 4. The examiner shows the candidate a sequence of five pictures which show a story. The examiner tells the candidate the name of the story and describes the first picture in the story, e.g. 'These pictures tell a story. It's called "Grandma's busy day". Just look at the pictures first. (Pause) Paul's parents are going out for the day. Paul is going to spend the day with Grandma. Paul's mum is saying, "Be good and don't make Grandma tired!"' The examiner then asks the candidate to describe the other four pictures. The title of the story and the name(s) of the main character(s) are shown on the story.
- 5. The examiner asks the candidate some personal questions on topics such as school, holidays, birthdays, family and hobbies, e.g. 'Now let's talk about films. When do you watch films?'
